9DF, clerk@clipstoneparishcouncil.org 01623 626857

Terms of Reference: Personnel Committee

Overall Purpose

To advance working relationships, staffing levels and performance.
The Personnel Committee will operate within a framework of best practice.

Membership

- Membership of the Committee will be a minimum of 3 Councillors
- Quorum for a meeting will be a minimum of 3 Councillors
- Up to 2 substitute Councillors are permitted to enable a meeting to proceed
- The Chairman of the Council is excluded from joining the Personnel Committee

Meetings

- Committee meetings will be open to the press and public but depending on the subject matter some reports may necessitate inclusion under Confidential Business
- The Committee will elect a Chair and if it wishes a Vice-Chair at its first meeting of the civic year
- The Personnel Committee will not be routinely convened and will meet only if required, with personnel matters addressed in the Confidential Business section of monthly Council meetings to ensure more timely progress
- The Committee may engage with outside agencies (including inviting their representatives to attend and participate in its meetings) as it considers necessary and appropriate to obtain advice and guidance and ensure a fair, transparent and balanced approach to any issues or concerns that may be raised during its activities
- Agendas and minutes will be published
- Clipstone Parish Councillors who are not Personnel Committee members may attend meetings but will not hold voting rights, unless they are formally substituted for Committee members
- Members of the public may participate in the debate at the express permission of the Committee Chair
- The Parish Clerk will provide administrative support for the Committee

Accountability

- The Personnel Committee is accountable to Council
- The draft minutes of the Committee meeting will be made available to the following Council meeting, if possible
- In the absence of draft minutes, the Chairman of the Committee will provide a written report to Council
- Its level of authority is predominantly advisory whereby it will make recommendations to Council. It will also operate under delegated powers which may be extended upon a resolution from Council. It's powers are outlined below:
